

PROJECT RESPECT

PRESENTS

FACILITATION 101

A WORKSHOP FOR YOUTH

Saturday March 9, 2019

11 to 4pm

@ the Dock coworking space
722 Cormorant St

Contact Information:

Sarah@yesmeansyes.com

Facebook @ProjectRespect

Instagram @projectrespect_

WORKSHOP DETAILS

- Learn how to create space for learning and growth about social justice
- Free and open to all youth 12-19, no previous experience necessary

FACILITATOR BIO

Tahia Ahmed is a facilitator and community organizer living and working on unceded Lekwungen and W̱SÁNEĆ lands and waters. She holds a BA in Political Science and Masters in Urban Studies from SFU and has been engaged in youth advocacy work with organizations such as Check Your Head: The Youth Global Education Network and the City of Victoria Youth Council. Tahia's anti-racism organizing has taken many forms over the years and currently focuses on reproductive justice and birth work through Nesting Doula Collective. She currently works at Inner Activist supporting change makers to do their work from the inside-out.